

Today's BTEC in Public Services

Right for you, right for your future

Reanna Killeen McGuirk - Outstanding BTEC Public Services Student of the Year 2014

Reanna completed a BTEC Level 3 National Diploma in Public Services achieving two Distinctions. Choosing the vocational route has enabled Reanna to explore career opportunities in public services alongside completing her Duke of Edinburgh Gold award. She is currently going through the process of joining the Army as a Royal Military Policewoman.

2014
Winner

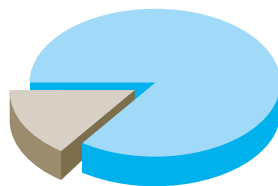

Progress with your studies

50%+

More than 50% of 20- to 30-year-olds going on to higher education have progressed via studying a BTEC†

85%

85% of BTEC students who progressed to further studies expect to derive long-term career-related benefits from their BTEC study*

Succeed in your career

79%

79% of BTEC students who progressed into employment consider BTEC as an important stepping stone towards their dream job*

62%

62% of large companies have recruited employees with a BTEC qualification

† www.which.co.uk/university

* Independent research carried out by London Economics 2010

 YouGov Large Business Research, February 2011

Ashley Loftus - Outstanding BTEC Public Services Student of the Year 2013

Ashley combined a BTEC Level 3 National Extended Diploma in Public Services with A level Law and, after achieving a Distinction Distinction Merit for his BTEC, he is now training as an officer in the Royal Navy. During his time at college, Ashley contributed widely to the college community and was an outstanding ambassador for his course, attending college open evenings to support the Public Services team and help advise Year 11 students about post-16 options.

2013
Winner

Learn how you can study BTEC as a standalone course, or alongside GCSEs and A levels, at www.btec.co.uk