

Today's BTEC in Art and Design

Right for you, right for your future

Connor Thomas - Outstanding BTEC Art and Design Student of the Year 2014

Connor studied the BTEC Level 3 National Extended Diploma in Art and Design, following the Interactive Media pathway. He was recently featured in 3d World Magazine and shortlisted for a prestigious international creative competition, his work was seen by people all over the UK, Europe and India. Connor was awarded a triple Distinction in July 2013 and went on to study Motion Graphics and Visual Effects at university.

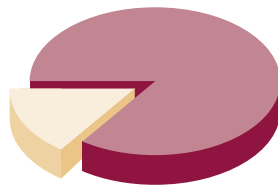

Progress with your studies

50%+

More than 50% of 20- to 30-year-olds going on to higher education have progressed via studying a BTEC†

85%

85% of BTEC students who progressed to further studies expect to derive long-term career-related benefits from their BTEC study*

Succeed in your career

79%

79% of BTEC students who progressed into employment consider BTEC as an important stepping stone towards their dream job*

62%

62% of large companies have recruited employees with a BTEC qualification

† www.which.co.uk/university

* Independent research carried out by London Economics 2010

 YouGov Large Business Research, February 2011

Laura Tingle - Outstanding BTEC Art and Design Student of the Year 2013

Laura was a high-achieving student at sixth form college, taking a BTEC National Extended Diploma in Art and Design as part of her studies. Her course exposed her to creative skills such as photography, printmaking, textiles and fine art. She has also photographed weddings as well as designing and painting sets for local school and college productions. Laura plans to become a photographer after completing her degree in Photography at university.

Learn how you can study BTEC as a standalone course, or alongside GCSEs and A levels, at www.btec.co.uk