

Right for you, right for your future

Luke Robinson - Outstanding BTEC Performing Arts Student of the Year 2014

Luke studied a BTEC Level 3 National Diploma in Performing Arts, which broadened his skills by encouraging him to explore various roles, including stage manager, technician, director, actor, singer and scriptwriter. He has volunteered at a school drama club, completed the Bronze and Silver Arts Award Advisor qualifications and has been making short films. He achieved Distinctions in his BTEC and is continuing his studies at university. His ambition is to become a director.

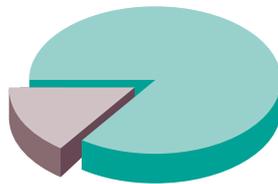

Progress with your studies

50%+

More than 50% of 20- to 30-year-olds going on to higher education have progressed via studying a BTEC†

85%

85% of BTEC students who progressed to further studies expect to derive long-term career-related benefits from their BTEC study*

Succeed in your career

79%

79% of BTEC students who progressed into employment consider BTEC as an important stepping stone towards their dream job*

62%

62% of large companies have recruited employees with a BTEC qualification

† www.which.co.uk/university

* Independent research carried out by London Economics 2010

 YouGov Large Business Research, February 2011

Tom Gardner - Outstanding BTEC Performing Arts Student of the Year 2013

Tom took a BTEC Level 2 First Diploma in Performing Arts as part of his studies and achieved a Distinction. He is now studying Drama at university. Tom is a great example of an all-rounder: he was a volunteer drama club leader at his local junior school and plays cricket for his local community team, where he develops and supports the learning of younger members. Tom's ambition is to become a drama teacher and to encourage his students to better themselves through the arts.

Learn how you can study BTEC as a standalone course, or alongside GCSEs and A levels, at www.btec.co.uk