

Real Skills for the Real World

The world's most successful, best-loved applied learning brand, BTEC has been engaging learners in practical, interpersonal and thinking skills for over 30 years.

1

Bernard Gauci
Malta

BTEC National in Hospitality

"I love the practicals, I love to cook, I wish to be a chef, for me it is very fun, and the teachers make the lessons very interesting."

2

Konstantina Sardella
Greece

Higher National Diploma in Speech & Language Therapy

"I chose a BTEC qualification, because I strongly believe that all people should pursue a career that satisfies them and one that they would happily do for the rest of their lives."

3

Tyron Zoutman
South Africa

BTEC Higher National in Performing Arts

"Everything in this qualification from units of directing to musical theatre, naturalistic acting to dance, movement of the actor, you name it, everything was great, it was a success for me."

4

Kulsoon Jaz
Pakistan

BTEC Higher National Diploma in Business

"It's a lot more practical than other courses... the others are just to learn books and just give exams, but here I get out into the field and be practical and I learnt a lot..I want to be the HR Director of a multinational company and with BTEC I see myself succeeding to it."

5

Jinesh Raval
India

BTEC Higher National in Hospitality

"Pearson's BTEC Programme's practical 'hands-on' approach allows me to gain the necessary experience I need to open my own resort. Along with an in-depth knowledge of the Hospitality industry, I was able to gain an exposure to Front Office Management, Food Production and Food Service."

6

Toe Wai Linn
Myanmar

BTEC Higher National Diploma in Civil Engineering

"I chose to study for a BTEC HND because it is a global qualification and the proper pathway to become a professional civil engineer. It provides in-depth knowledge of the discipline of civil engineering and covers how to plan, design, construct and maintain buildings and infrastructures... BTEC is the best qualification for students who want to become a professional in their chosen industry."

7

Mai Linh
Singapore

BTEC National in Graphic Design

"Art is my passion... BTEC has helped me to improve myself and has given me skills to prepare for the working world"

BTEC qualifications have all earned global recognition from some of the world's leading universities.
