Welcome!

Dear Exams Officer,

Welcome to your Exams Update - Results Special. We hope that those of you involved in GCE Results days had a successful week.

Once again we've put together what we hope is some useful guidance to help your GCSE Results Days run as smoothly as possible.

All GCSE, International GCSE, Edexcel Certificate, DiDA, Level 1 & 2 Principal Learning, Level 1 & 2 Projects, Edexcel Award and BTEC National Level 2 results will be available to Exams Officers and Heads of Centres on Wednesday 20 August 2014, and can be released to candidates and teachers on Thursday 21 August 2014.

(NB: BTEC Firsts results may be released to students the same day - 20 August 2014)

EDI results will be available from 12.01am on 20 August 2014.
Edexcel Online results will be available from 6am on 20 August 2014.

Edexcel Online Results

All individual results can be viewed on Edexcel Online by going to the relevant qualification pages via the drop down menu, choosing 'Results' and then 'Search'.

For NQF BTEC results reports, once you have selected BTEC, you should then choose 'NQF Results Reports'.

GCSE Broadsheet reports and electronic copies of Provisional Statement of Results will be sent to your Edexcel Online mailboxes for the morning of 20 August 2014.

Additional reports (such as Contributing Unit Results) can be ordered on Edexcel Online on the relevant subject pages by selecting 'Results' and clicking on 'Reports Bulk Download'. Moderator Reports for Coursework can also be found in the 'Results' section.

Please note that any changes made to grades on Results Days will not show on Broadsheets and Statements of Results ordered from Edexcel Online (EOL) until the following day. You will, however, be able to see them via the 'candidate search' function of EOL, within one to two hours of grades being changed.

For a breakdown of GCSE Mathematics 1MA0 results, as well as International GCSE and Edexcel Certificate components you will need to order the "Component Mark List".

Hard Copy Results

You should only receive hard copy results if you have opted in on Edexcel Online prior to the results session.

If you have opted in and not received these, then please check the delivery with your local post office.

If this is still unsuccessful, then you can either order new hard copy results by emailing examsofficers@pearson.com, or printing off the Statement of Results report we will send to your Edexcel Online mailbox.

EDI & A2C

If you do not appear to have received your A2C results files for academic qualifications please ensure you have hit the "Send/Receive" button on the A2C application inbox. If the file does not appear in the inbox, check the Logs screen to see if it appears in the "Received Files" list, from where you can retrieve the file.

If the file does not show in your A2C log, please contact eprocessing@pearson.com.

For further information see here.

Any Q grades for academic results that show on an EDI file will mean the result is still pending, and for BTEC results, a "Q" appears for any learner that doesn't have an overall qualification grade.

Please be aware that A2C will be taken down on Tuesday 19 August 2014 from 8pm until midnight while we load results files.

BTEC Results

For centres that have requested BTEC EDI results files, we will be sending updates this week for BTEC NQF First Level 2 qualifications to include overall results for those candidates that sat external assessment units in the summer.

NB: BTEC NQF External Assessment unit results will only be sent via EDI if the bookings were made in that format.

BTEC NQF results will also be available on Edexcel Online, Broadsheets and Provisional Statements of Results can be ordered in the same way as academic results.

Please note that any overall claims will still show as "Pending" on Edexcel Online until the certificates are printed in October, even though an overall grade has been awarded.

Further information on BTEC results can be found in our BTEC Summer Results Guide.

There's also support on each of the BTEC Firsts specification pages, including a handy checklist of the information you're most likely to need on Results Day, including:

- Examination papers and Mark Schemes
- Lead Examiner Reports and Grade Boundaries
- Access to Scripts service.

If you need advice from a subject expert, it's easy to keep in touch with our Subject Advisor team, and if your students need some help understanding their BTEC results, there's also a Results for Students page where they can find out answers to frequently asked questions.

UCAS

For academic qualifications we are sending results to UCAS daily until 3 October. Files are sent at midday and then UCAS will process these the next day so please be aware that there can be a slight delay.

For BTEC and other vocational qualifications updates are sent weekly from 7 July till 15 September. During results weeks we send files to UCAS twice a week, on Mondays and Thursdays.
