Reminder: GCSE entries for June 2014

Students entering for the first time

All required unit codes and respective cash-in code need to be entered, in order to receive a final overall grade.

Students resitting a GCSE

Only controlled assessment unit(s) which have been certificated can be carried forward from previous exams series. All externally assessed units must be entered alongside the respective cash-in code.

For a list of units and cash-in codes please refer to the version 2 Information Manual (issued October 2013).

BTEC (NQF) Next Generation Exam Start Times

It has come to our attention that booking confirmations for paper-based external assessments are currently showing inconsistent exam start times.

To confirm, we have aligned the start times to JCQ Guidance for General Qualifications. This means that any 'AM' scheduled exam should commence at 9:00am and 'PM' exams should start at 1.30pm.

We are updating the relevant systems to reflect this and apologise for any convenience caused.

ResultsPlus Direct - New process to register students

The previous PIN slip service has now been discontinued making the 'opt in' or 'opt out' process no longer available. If you still want your students to gain access to their results they will need to be registered.

Registrations can be made via the ResultsPlus platform. For guidance on how to register students for ResultsPlus Direct please refer to our quick start guide here.

If you have not yet registered on ResultsPlus please click here.

Free Exams Officer Training Events - Spring 2014

We still have spaces left for our BTEC event in Coventry and Cardiff and spaces in all locations for our Academic Qualification events. These events are to help you through your first year inpost, and are ideal for exams officers in schools and colleges with no or little experience of administering our qualifications.

For details on how to book yourself a place onto a training event please click here.

The Exams Office

We have been advised of a new, free, online support service for exams officers which has been launched this week.
