Welcome to the September edition of the Edexcel International Update newsletter.

Keeping you informed every step of the way

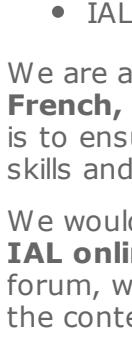

This edition brings you updates about Edexcel qualifications for international schools, including: International GCSEs, International Advanced Levels, GCSE and GCE A level reform and the Primary and Lower Secondary Curricula (PLSC). It also provides information about our ExamWizard service, a free online exam preparation tool designed to support teachers to assess pupil knowledge and understanding before the exam. It also includes links to two new education insight blogs from Pearson. Read the latest news below.

We encourage you to share this newsletter with all teachers at your school.

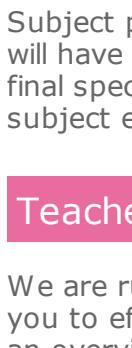

International GCSE

Updates to International GCSE qualifications

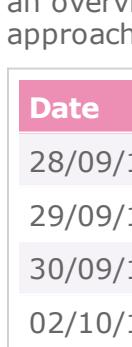

In response to feedback from teachers, higher education representatives, subject expert groups and other key stakeholders, we are making some updates to Edexcel International GCSE qualifications for first teaching in September 2016 and 2017. Updates include:

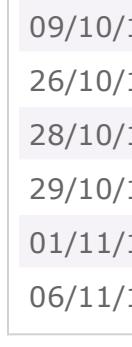

Designed for international students. More international content, including the addition of further international content topics and the use of local contexts where possible. Content will also be updated to reflect the latest thinking in each subject. International GCSEs will be comparable to the new UK 9-1 GCSEs in terms of the level of demand and assessment standards.

Rewarding outstanding academic achievement. Introducing a new 9-1 grading scale for updated International GCSEs, to give the very highest performers the opportunity to achieve a grade 9, rewarding outstanding academic achievement. Grade 9 represents a higher level of attainment than the current A* grade.

Structured and supported transition. The full updated 9-1 International GCSE suite will be available for first teaching in September 2017, with first assessment in May / June 2019. For schools outside of the UK that would like to begin teaching updated International GCSEs as soon as possible, the following subjects will be available for first teaching in September 2016, with first assessment in May / June 2018; English Language A, English Language B, English Literature, Mathematics A and Mathematics B.

Comprehensive support and resources. We will provide you with a wider range of teaching and learning materials, resources and training to support the best possible learner outcomes, in time for first teaching. This support includes schemes of work, exemplar materials, comprehensive textbooks and interactive resources, digital services and tailored International GCSE teacher training.

Please take part in our online subject expert panels

We would be grateful if you can continue to participate in the International GCSE consultation through our online subject expert panels. By taking part, you will be able to actively contribute to all aspects of the updated qualifications, including the assessment model, content topics and subject aims. You will also be able to suggest other International GCSE subjects we should consider redeveloping for first teaching in September 2017. Get involved and complete this online form.

Are you an English teacher? Please take part in our anthology texts survey!

As part of the planned updates to International GCSE qualifications from 2016 and 2017, we are considering refreshing the Anthology, which is used in the English Language A and English Literature specifications. Before we make any changes to the Anthology, we would really value your feedback. To feedback, please complete this short online survey. The survey closes on the 28 September.

For more information about planned updates to International GCSE qualifications from 2016 and 2017, including the new 9-1 grading scale, please visit our website or read our frequently asked questions document.

International Advanced Levels

Update on new subjects for first teaching in September 2015 and 2016

A reminder that specifications and sample assessment materials (SAMs) for each new Edexcel International Advanced Level (IAL) subject (first teaching in September 2015) are now available to download from our website here:

- IAL English Language (2015)
- IAL English Literature (2015)
- IAL History (2015)
- IAL Psychology (2015)

We are also pleased to announce that we will introduce 6 additional IAL subjects in Arabic, French, German, Greek, Geography and Spanish for first teaching in September 2016. This is to ensure that we offer learners a wider choice of subjects, to allow them to develop knowledge, skills and talents in the subjects that most motivate them to achieve their full potential.

We would like to take this opportunity to invite you and teachers at your school to take part in our IAL online subject expert panels for these new 2016 qualifications. The panels are an online forum, where you will be able to actively contribute to all aspects of the new qualifications including the content topics and subject aims.

Subject panel participants will have an exclusive first view of the new qualifications and as a result, will have the opportunity to provide meaningful feedback that will inform the development of the final specifications and Sample Assessment Materials (SAMs). To sign up to take part in the online subject expert panels, please complete this online form.

Teacher training events

We are running free online and face to face 'Getting Ready to Teach' events, to further support you to effectively deliver the new 2015 IAL specifications with confidence. The events will provide an overview of the new structures, content, assessment, key changes, planning and teaching approaches. Please see below for the dates and times of some of these sessions.
