

Consortium Delivery Model

This high level model demonstrates how the delivery of Skilled for Life could be shared between different centres, to meet learner needs. For example, the home centre may be a college who shares delivery of Industry Knowledge and Work Experience units with a training provider.

Key facts

- Learner profile: 16+
- Length of programme: Any length dependent on learner needs
- Type of centre: Schools, colleges, training providers, work-based learning

