

2: How does play change?

There are different kinds of play.

Activity 2: How are these children communicating?

Talk with a partner. Describe the types of communication in these examples. Then write your ideas in the boxes.

Mark is five. Katie is two. Mark says to Katie 'Do you want a drink?' Katie says 'Dink!'

Aarya is three. She is singing a nursery rhyme. Her friend George joins in.

Alicia is three. She is playing with her mum's make-up. Her five-year-old brother Fabio says 'No! Mummy says don't touch!'

Five-year-old Janek is riding a tricycle with his friend, Claire. They are taking turns.

Samira is five. Her friend Malik asks her for the red pen. She passes it to him.
