Vit Horky: BTEC level 5 Higher National Diploma in Business

After finishing his HND in Business, Vit went on to complete his BA (Hons) International Management degree at Prague College.

What's he doing now?

Vit is the founder and Managing Director of Brand Embassy, a software company with offices in London and Prague.

How did the BTEC shape his future?

He applied the practical skills and knowledge that he gained in the BTEC to set up an international business within 5 years of completing his studies.

Lenora Caton: BTEC level 3 National Extended Diploma in International Business Studies

Lenora's story:

After graduating with her BTEC, Lenora followed her dream to study in England to undertake a BA in Marketing at Lincoln University. She then successfully completed an MSc in Branding at The University of East Anglia.

What is she doing now?

Lenora is currently working in the mobile marketing sector as an Account Executive.

How did BTEC shape her future?

"Completing my BTEC has helped me to gain far more than just an education. It was the starting point of something much bigger. It's a world-class study where the only limit is down to your own imagination and determination."

"I find that students with BTECs are independent learners, they find it easy to adapt to university life and have a more mature outlook. Because BTEC courses are aimed directly at industry they also have a clearer understanding of how their study relates to jobs."

Mark Wallman, Course Leader and Senior Lecturer for Visual Effects, University of Hertfordshire, UK

PEARSON ALWAYS LEARNING

Pearson's BTEC qualifications are recognised by leading universities, professional bodies and international employers. So whatever your career aspirations, BTEC can help you achieve them.

Real-life learning

BTEC is the perfect choice if you enjoy learning by doing practical assignments and tasks. It encourages communication and collaboration, and puts into practice the skills required for success in a 21st century business environment.

Engaging, Recognised

You will be assessed in-centre by the teacher, using both theory and practical assignments. These are often work-related such as film clips or business plans and proposals; and can take place within real work environments.
